

2026 Leadership Jackson County Registration Form

Leadership Jackson County is 6-month course designed to help participants understand community issues, provide them with information on how decisions are made, and prepare them to become leaders in their businesses and the community. The class sessions will be held each month from 8:30 am – 10:00 am, on the second Thursday of the month. Classes will begin January 8, 2026, and conclude June 11, 2026. Attendance at a minimum of one outside public meeting is a requirement for graduation. The cost is $300 per person for JCCC members ($400 per person for non-JCCC members). Continental breakfast and program materials are included. If you have any questions, please contact the Chamber at 304-531-1018. Registration is due by November 1, 2025, and slots for the program will be filled on a first-come first-served basis.
